2023 TAX ORGANIZER

T O

This tax organizer has been prepared for your use in gathering the information needed for your 2023 tax return.

To save you time, selected information from your 2022 tax return has been entered in this organizer. Please line through any information that does not apply to your 2023 tax return.

In some cases, 2022 amounts have been included in a separate column. These amounts are for comparison purposes only. You do not need to change these prior year amounts.

If we may be of further assistance, please contact us at your convenience.

ENGAGEMENT LETTER

Thank you for selecting Turner, Leins & Gold, LLC (TLG), to assist you with your tax affairs. This letter confirms the terms of our engagement with you and the nature and extent of services we will provide.

We will prepare your 2023 federal and all state individual (Form 1040 based) income tax returns you request using information you provide to us. It is your responsibility to provide information required for preparation of complete and accurate returns. Our services are not intended to determine whether you have filing requirements in other taxing jurisdictions than the one(s) you have informed us of. Our firm is available under the terms of a separate engagement letter to provide a nexus study that will enable us to determine whether any other state tax filings are required.

If, during the course of preparing your returns, we become aware of additional necessary filings, we will discuss them with you. Depending on the required filings, we may request an additional engagement letter or agree that those filings will, on and after the point of such agreement, be covered by this this engagement letter. We are not responsible for any tax returns or filings outside the scope of this engagement letter.

You should keep all documents, canceled checks, and other data that support your reported income and deductions. We will return to you all original documents that you supply to us to prepare your returns. You should keep this information, along with a copy of your returns, with all other tax-related documents. They may be necessary to prove accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. You have the final responsibility for your returns, so you should review them carefully before you sign and mail them, or provide a signed copy of the electronic filing form(s) to us authorizing us to electronically file ("e-file") your returns on your behalf.

If applicable, we've enclosed an "Organizer" to help you gather the information required for a complete return. Please use the Organizer, as it will help avoid overlooking important information, and it contributes to the efficient preparation of your returns. Completion of the Organizer also helps lower the cost for services. You represent that the information you supply to us is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge and that you have disclosed to us all relevant facts affecting the returns. We may ask for clarification of some items, but we will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit.

If you are unable to provide all of your tax preparation information by March 15th, 2024, your returns may have to be extended. This allows time to properly complete returns for those who have already provided complete information. Note that an extension only provides additional time to prepare and file a tax return. It does not provide additional time to pay any tax due.

Please note that although e-filing will require both you and TLG to complete additional steps, the same filing deadlines apply. We will provide you with a copy of the income tax returns for your review prior to e-file submission. After you review the returns, you must provide us with signed authorization (forms included with your returns) indicating that you have reviewed the returns and that, to the best of your knowledge, they are correct.

We cannot transmit the returns to the taxing authorities until we have the signed authorization from you. Therefore, if you have not provided TLG with your signed authorization by April 5th, 2024, we will place your return on extension, even though it might already have been completed. In any event, you are responsible for payment of taxes due by the original return filing deadline (does not include extension time).

You should be aware that IRS audit procedures will almost always include questions regarding bartering transactions, other income transactions, and deductions that require strict documentation such as travel, business meals, and business usage of autos, computers and business accounting records if you run a business that is included on your tax return. In preparing your returns, we rely on your representations that we have been informed of all such transactions and that you understand and have complied with the documentation requirements for your expenses and deductions. If you have questions about these issues, please contact us.

Our work will not include any procedures to discover defalcations or other irregularities. The only accounting or analysis work we will do is that which is necessary for preparation of your income tax returns. All working papers and notes we prepare internally are part of our internal use only, and such records and will remain our property.

We must use our judgment in resolving questions where the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretations of the law and other supportable positions. We will exercise our reasonable professional judgment in order to resolve such issues in the manner we believe to be most likely to avoid penalties. You agree to honor our decisions regarding the need to make protective disclosures in your returns.

Penalties of as much as $100,000 can be imposed on you for failing to disclose participation in "reportable transactions," that is, certain arrangements the IRS has identified as potentially abusive. We will insist that all such transactions be properly disclosed.

The law also imposes penalties when taxpayers understate their tax liability. If an extension of time to file your 2023 returns is necessary, any tax due with those returns is due with the extension filing by the original filing deadline. Amounts not paid with the extension may be subject to interest and penalties when paid. We need as much of your information as possible to prepare the extension and calculate said potential tax liability. If you have concerns about such penalties, please call us.

Your returns may be selected for audit by a taxing authority. If you receive a letter/notice from a taxing authority, remember that any proposed adjustments are subject to appeal. Please try to resolve it immediately. If you need our help in dealing with a tax notice, please contact us. Our involvement in attempting to resolve the issue will be billed at our standard hourly rates plus out-of-pocket expenses. In the event of a tax examination, we can arrange to be available to represent you. Such representation will be billed at our standard hourly rates plus out-of-pocket expenses.

Our fee for preparation of your tax returns will be primarily based on the amount of time required at our standard billing rates plus out-of-pocket expenses and an administrative fee. We also give consideration to the difficulty and size of the assignment, the degree of skill required, time limitations imposed on us by others, the experience and ability of the personnel assigned, the nature of the project, the level of cooperation by the client or the client's staff, and the value of the services provided to the client. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation. A late charge of 1.5% per month will be added to all accounts not paid within thirty (30) days. If for any reason the account is turned over to an attorney or collection agency, an additional 10% administrative fee shall be added to the then-outstanding balance, which you agree is a fee and not a penalty, and you will be charged, and you agree to pay, all costs of collection (including, without limitation, any sums charged by any collection agency) and all reasonable attorney's fees incurred by TLG if TLG is the substantially prevailing party in any litigation arising from non-payment or other breach of this engagement agreement (including, without limitation, breach of your hold-harmless and indemnification obligations set forth below).

In accordance with federal law, in no case will we disclose your tax return information to any location outside the United States, to another tax return preparer outside of our firm for purposes of a second opinion, or to any other third party for any purpose other than to prepare your return without first receiving your consent. Should we receive any request for the disclosure of privileged information from any third party, we will notify you. We require your written authorization to disclose your information to third parties other than a subpoena or IRS summons. If you fail to respond to our request for written authorization to disclose your information pursuant to a subpoena or IRS summons, you agree that such non-response shall serve as your authorization to TLG to comply with such subpoena or IRS summons. Should you instruct us not to make such disclosure, or to limit the disclosure, including, without limitation, pursuant to any privilege, protection, and/or statute, you agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from any fees, costs, expenses, damages, losses, and/or other liability incurred in connection with doing so, including, by way of illustration only, our attorney's fees, court costs, outside advisor's costs, or penalties or fines imposed as a result of you instructing us not to make such disclosure or to limit the disclosure, and including, without limitation, prompt advancement of sums reasonably requested by TLG that TLG believes will be necessary for any such fees, costs, expenses, damages, losses, and/or other liability.

We will retain copies of records you supplied to us along with our work papers for your engagement for a period of five years. After five years, our work papers and engagement files will be destroyed. All of your original records will be returned to you at the end of this engagement. You should keep the original records in secure storage with all your tax records.

You must provide us with written notification if you wish to end this engagement prior to its completion. Likewise, we will provide you with written notification should we elect to end this engagement prior to completion. Upon receipt of your written notification terminating this engagement, or upon transmission or our written notification terminating this engagement, we will cease all work and provide you with your original documents, if any, in our possession. Ending this engagement prematurely releases us from any obligation to complete your return(s) and will constitute completion of this engagement. You agree to compensate us for our time and expenses through the date of receipt from your, or transmission by TLG, of such notification.

Please note that any person or entity subject to the jurisdiction of the United States (including individuals, corporations, companies, partnerships, trusts, and estates) having a financial interest in, or signature or other authority over, bank accounts, securities, or other financial accounts in a foreign country having an aggregate value exceeding $10,000, must report such a relationship. Although there are some limited exceptions, filing requirements also apply to taxpayers that have direct or indirect control over a foreign or domestic entity with foreign financial accounts, even if the taxpayer does not have foreign account(s). For example, a corporate-owned foreign account would require filings by the corporation and by the individual corporate officers with signature authority. Failure to disclose the required information to the U.S. Department of the Treasury may result in substantial civil and/or criminal penalties. Such disclosure includes filing Form 8938 with Form 1040. If you do not provide our firm with information regarding any interest you may have in a foreign account, we will not be able to prepare any of the required income-tax related forms and penalties which may be due, for which we have no responsibility. In the absence of such information being provided we will presume you do not have any foreign assets or financial interests and will not file any applicable disclosure forms without separate written authorization.

If you and/or your entity have a financial interest in any foreign accounts, you are responsible for filing Form FinCen 114 required by the U.S. Department of the Treasury on or before April 15th, 2024, with a maximum extension for a six-month period ending October 15th, 2024.

In addition, currently the Internal Revenue Service, under IRC §6038 and §6046, requires information reporting if you are an officer, director, or shareholder with respect to certain foreign corporations (Form 5471); foreign-owned U.S. corporation or foreign corporation engaged in a U.S. trade or business (Form 5472); U.S. transferor of property to a foreign corporation (Form 926); and, for taxable years beginning after March 18, 2010, if you hold foreign financial assets with an aggregate value exceeding $50,000 (Form 8938). These code sections describe the information required to be reported on the respective forms, which are due when your income tax return is due, including extensions. Therefore, if you fall into one of the above categories, you may be required to file one of the above listed forms. Failure to timely file may result in substantial monetary penalties. By your signature at the end of this letter, you accept responsibility for informing us if you believe that you fall into one of the above categories and you agree to provide us with the information necessary to prepare the appropriate form(s). We assume no liability for penalties associated with the failure to file or untimely filing of any of these forms.

We will prepare your tax return(s) to be filed electronically. Should you elect to NOT have your returns electronically filed by us on your behalf, you must request, sign, and return an Electronic Filing "Opt-Out" Agreement before we complete your tax returns. In the absence of a properly executed Electronic Filing Opt-Out Agreement, we will automatically prepare your returns for electronic filing. In this case, should you receive your returns prepared for electronic filing and decide you do not want them electronically filed, you agree to compensate us for time and expenses incurred to change your returns to "paper" filing status and prepare the government filing copies for you to file directly with the appropriate government entity.

You and TLG agree that any dispute arising from this agreement shall be litigated in Fairfax County courts. The parties agree to waive the right to a jury in any court proceeding and agree not to request a jury. The parties agree to personal jurisdiction in Virginia and venue in Fairfax County, Virginia. Each Taxpayer signatory hereto agrees that he or she is jointly and severally liable for all fees, costs, expenses, costs, and other sums arising hereunder or awarded by any court. The laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia shall govern this agreement and any disputes arising hereunder. Any court interpreting this agreement shall construe it as if it did not have a drafter, and no portion hereof shall be interpreted in favor of or against any party based on who drafted it.

Electronic signatures on this agreement and other documents transmitted between us in electronic form shall be treated for all purposes as original signatures. This agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and all of which shall be deemed to be one instrument.

To affirm that this letter correctly summarizes your understanding of the arrangements for this work, please sign in the space(s) indicated below and return this letter to us with your tax documents. By sending us your 2023 tax documents for your return's preparation without a signed engagement letter, you are agreeing to the terms of this engagement letter.

We appreciate your confidence in us. Please call if you have questions.
Sincerely,
Stephen M. Turner, CPA Managing Member

Date:

NOTE: If you are electronically filing (e-filing) your tax returns, you will receive final e-file authorization forms with your tax return and must sign and return them to us after you review your tax returns. This officially authorizes us to submit your returns electronically. We will not submit your tax returns until we have received these final authorization forms from you. Please be certain to open your tax return package and follow the instruction letters carefully when you receive your completed returns from us.

PRIVACY POLICY

CPAs, like all providers of personal financial services, are now required by law to inform their clients of their policies regarding privacy of client information. CPAs have been and continue to be bound by professional standards of confidentiality that are even more stringent than those required by law. Therefore, we have always protected your right to privacy.

TYPES OF NONPUBLIC PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We collect nonpublic personal information about you that is either provided to us by you or obtained by us with your authorization.

PARTIES TO WHOM WE DISCLOSE INFORMATION

For current and former clients, we do not disclose any nonpublic personal information obtained in the course of our practice except as required or permitted by law. Permitted disclosures include, for instance, providing information to our employees and, in limited situations, to unrelated third parties who need to know that information to assist us in providing services to you. In all such situations, we stress the confidential nature of information being shared.

PROTECTING THE CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY OF CURRENT AND FORMER CLIENTS' INFORMATION

We retain records relating to professional services that we provide so that we are better able to assist you with your professional needs and, in some cases, to comply with professional guidelines. In order to guard your nonpublic personal information, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with our professional standards.

Please call if you have any questions, because your privacy, our professional ethics, and the ability to provide you with quality financial services are very important to us.

Dear Valued Client,

We trust you had a memorable holiday season and our best wishes for a happy new year.

On the tax front

Your tax organizer is included with this letter to help you gather the information we need to prepare your return. Please complete the organizer in its entirety, as it helps to clarify items during the tax preparation process and helps avoid errors. Note that there is no need to re-record information from tax documents provided to you by third parties (i.e. W-2 forms, 1099 forms, 1098 forms, etc.) as you simply include all these forms with your organizer and return to us. However, please be certain to record information that is not on reporting forms sent to you by others (i.e. expenses incurred on rental properties or self-employed business expenses, estimated payments etc...).

Please be certain to sign the engagement letter. We apologize for the length of our engagement letter. Our professional standards require that we obtain this engagement letter prior to completing your tax return.

Deadlines to be aware of

Generally, returns are prepared on a first-come, first-served basis. If you have an urgent need for your return, please let us know. We will do our very best to help you meet any deadlines you may have. To assist us in helping you file by the deadline, we ask that you deliver your information in time for us to process it efficiently and effectively. This may include sending your tax information even if an item is missing, such as a broker's statement or Form K-1.

We strive to achieve the best results, which takes time. Accordingly, we request that you have your information in our office as outlined below.

	Return Due Dates:	Document Deadlines (should be received no later than)
Partnership & S-Corporation	March 15th	February 15th
Returns (Year-end 12/31)	September 15th (extended due date)	August 15th
C-Corporation Returns	April 15th	March 15th
(Year-end 12/31)	October 15th (extended due date)	September 15th
Trust & Estate Returns	April 15 th	March 15th
(Year-end 12/31)	September 30th (extended due date)	August 30th
Individual Returns & FBAR (Foreign Bank Account Reporting)	April 15th October 15th (extended due date)	March 15th September 15th

Our fees

Like everything in the world around us, please anticipate an increase in your tax preparation fees. The cost of doing business over the last couple of years has been dramatic. Just the mere cost of living adjustment is more than I recall in recent memory. We have done everything we can do to keep our fees as low as possible. For most of you, unless you have had a change in circumstance, our fee increase should not be dramatic. However, given the magnitude of the cost increases we are experiencing we can no longer prepare even the simplest of returns, for less than $900.

Scheduling an appointment during tax season

As you know, tax season is a very pressured time of year for accounting firms. If you would like to meet with a tax professional to discuss your 2023 tax preparation or completed return, we ask that you make a scheduled appointment. Also, please provide your email address to facilitate communications.

Address/phone number or other changes

If you have moved, changed phone numbers or changed email addresses, please be certain to note this in your organizer. If you will not be needing our services during the upcoming year, please contact Mary Flis in our Vienna location at (703)242-6500 or Shahnaz Tehraniazad in our Rockville location at (301)340-6300 to let us know.

Electronic Filing Requirement

As you are probably aware, we are required to file federal returns electronically in the absence of an efile opt-out. We will address the specific state requirements for your situation as they arise during the filing season. If you would like to opt-out of electronic filing at the federal or state level, please call or email us to request an Opt-Out Agreement.

Health Insurance

Please provide us with all 1095 forms (A, B or C). If you purchased insurance on an exchange, for example, the 1095-A is required in order for us to calculate any repayment of your excess advance premium tax credit, or any additional credit to which you may be entitled. If not available at time of submission, please make a note to that effect and furnish once available.

Other items to note

Given the technology changes we have made this past year we are now able to securely deliver your tax returns and provide other information electronically through our "Axcess Portal". If you would prefer this method of delivery, please let us know by placing a note with your tax documents.

We thank you for taking time to read this letter, and we look forward to working with you soon.

Sincerely,

Turner, Leins & Gold, LLC

HEADACHE SAVERS

Federal, state and local governments are continuously looking for sources of additional revenue. This means more inquiries, notices and audits. Save yourself the added headache of finding good records one or two years from now should your return be questioned. Resist the temptation to provide round number estimates and "same as last year" answers. Give us the numbers your records support.

Sensitive topics include:

- Virtual Currency the IRS is starting to request more information on virtual currency transactions. If you deal in BitCoin or any other cryptocurrency, be sure to keep accurate records and report any transaction that results in a gain or loss.
- Automobile Business Mileage keep good records of where and when you drive for business use a diary or calendar to prove your business usage. Keep receipts that support total mileage for the year as well.
- In case of an audit, the IRS is routinely asking for a copy of your QuickBooks, or other accounting software, for the audit year.
- Miscellaneous expense too high a number indicates you're not categorizing your expenses well. More detail is better.
- Meals Due to the new tax law, entertainment is no longer a deductible expense. Jot down on your receipt who you saw and for what business purpose. As many receipts fade quickly, keep a diary or copy annotated receipts before they fade. You may want to double check that your records correlate with the receipts for this type of meeting.
- Subcontractor expense The IRS is offering a voluntary program to convert independent contractors to employees. That means audits are coming soon. If you, the employer, control hours and method of work, you have employees. High subcontractor expenses can arouse IRS curiosity.
- Office in home business use has to be exclusive and regular.
- Hobby losses substantiate your expertise, regular and continuous business activity and profit motive. Use a separate bank account, credit card, etc for your business. Report only business expenses. The IRS is asking for proof that losing activities are real businesses.
- Contributions be sure to obtain and keep letters from charities for contributions made in one day to one charity of $250 or more. Noncash contributions of similar items, that total $5,000 or more for the year, require an appraisal.
- States New York, California, Michigan and others are trying to assert that if an individual has a presence in their state, that person should be subject to tax, often as a resident. Keep good records of how many days you work in states other than your home state. Cell phones, credit cards, EZ pass records show where you are.
- Foreign Accounts and/or Assets Should you own, or have signature authority over, any foreign accounts and/or assets, including retirement plans, please provide statements. If statements are not readily available, please advise us and we will contact you to discuss the required information.

Items to be forwarded to us at a later date (e.g. K-1, broker 1099s, insurance form 1095, etc.):
